FROM: ENGINEERING CONSULTANTS SECTION

SUBJECT: PROJECT MANAGEMENT TRAINING, PHASE 2 - PART 1

ADOT has completed the first phase of training for our new project management process. We are now ready to continue with Phase 2 - Part 1, which will consist of in-depth training in the areas of program and funding, design, construction, and maintenance. The training will be given by key ADOT staff members in those areas.

The training is being offered to consultant project managers. There will be seven sessions, each consisting of eight hours of training over a two-day period. A schedule showing the training dates and locations is attached. Please note that the schedule includes dates in Tucson and Flagstaff.

For reservations, please call Marlene Johnson at 255-6618.

ADOT has completed the first phase of training for our new project management process. We are now ready to continue with Phase 2 - Part 1, which will consist of in-depth training in the areas of program and funding, design, construction, and maintenance. The training will be given by key ADOT staff members in those areas.

The training is being offered to consultant project managers. The course consists of eight hours of training over a two-day period. A session is being held at the Tucson District Office, 1221 South 2nd Avenue on September 12 and 13.

We are only advising Southern Arizona firms of the Tucson training. Future courses will be scheduled in Phoenix. Seating is limited and reservations will be given on a first-come, first-serve basis.

For reservations, please call Marlene Johnson at 255-6618.
